

4. THE MAN AND THE FISH-HORN

A Truthful Man, finding a musical instrument in the road, asked the name of it and was told that it was a Fish-Horn. The next time he went fishing he set his nets and blew the fish-horn all day to charm the fish into them, but at nightfall there was not only no fish in the nets, but none along that part of the coast. Meeting a friend while on his way home he was asked what luck he had. "Well," said the Truthful Man, "the weather is not right for fishing, but it's a red-letter day for music." Ambrose Bierce
